

WORKSHOP

General information

The workshop aim is to introduce University and PhD students in the complex process that transform a new idea born from researcher mind into a device/equipment which, not only allows the realization of experiments into a research laboratory, could become a project for commerciable and industrializable purpose.

Program

9.30 to 10.30

Introduction to Ugo Basile history and mission;

Introduction to Ugo Basile department for biological research equipments, peculiarities of the sector, aspects of the market, interaction with the world of research, problems and potential lines of development.

10.30-11.30

As a new idea "come into" in the company. The concept of R & D, the problems associated with the transition from research to single industrial project, the custom product.

11.30 to 12.30

Presentation of the structure and characteristics of a production department, organizational aspects, the concept of micro production chain, specialty craft and industrial connotations.

12.30-14 BREAKFAST

14.00-17.00

Presentation of UGO BASILE equipment, with particular reference to Fear Conditioning.

Date

2 dicembre 2013

Venue

UGO BASILE s.r.l.

Via G. Di Vittorio, 2

Gemonio (VA)

Italy